Gurudakshinē

Overview

- ❑ A project solely for the teaching community, which extends beyond teachers in schools and colleges. It includes all forms of educators whether they are, music teachers, sports coaches, yoga instructors or even corporate trainers. .
- ❑ It goes beyond a mere recognition and acknowledgement of teachers for their contribution to our lives and success. It aims to assist teachers financially in times of need and distress. This objective is achieved by creating a corpus exclusively for this purpose.
- ❑ It is an attempt to demonstrate the collective power of Rotarians cutting across the silos of clubs in our district. It is a collaborative effort of like-minded Rotarians who believe in this cause of providing succor to the teaching community.
- ❑ It is a long-term project, extending beyond a year and this project will be executed year on year in perpetuity.
- ❑ An Independent, Voluntary Organization giving awards on recommendation from panel of experts

Gurudakshinē

Objectives

---

- ❑ To provide financial aid to individuals of the teaching community by a process of request made by applicants from the teaching community, recommendation by a person of repute and standing in society, scrutiny and approval by a screening committee formed for this specific purpose.
- ❑ To recognize outstanding achievements by any individual belonging to the teaching community, irrespective of race, caste, creed, religion, gender, economic status, through a process of nomination, scrutiny, selection and finally presenting RI District 3190 Gurudakshinē awards annually (National Level Awards for Excellence in Teaching)
- ❑ To facilitate expression of gratitude to our teachers on the occasion of Teachers' Day by presenting a personalized e-certificate of gratitude and simultaneously contributing to the corpus for the welfare of members of teaching community. (Guru Vandane)

An initiative by Rotary Clubs of RI District 3190 in the area of Education and Literacy

Financial Support, Recognition and Appreciation of Teaching Community is the main objective of Gurudakshine Project
